

Press Information

From Duncan Phillips
Phillips Advertising & Publicity
Tel: UK 1460 07980 / 07980 832639
duncanphillips@btinternet.com
www.antiquespr.com

Cooper Fairs

Vintage Jewellery Highlights Tatton Park Antiques Fair

Tatton Park, Knutsford, Cheshire WA16 6QN
7th – 9th September 2012

Gold, silver, platinum, fabulous diamonds, pearls, rubies, sapphires and emeralds feature in a glittering show of 19th and 20th century jewellery at The Tatton Park Antiques & Fine Art Fair, 7th – 9th September 2012

Specialist jewellers showing eye-catching unique and highly desirable pieces join a sumptuous display of fine art and antiques at this popular autumn fair. With more than forty dealers from across the UK, this event is a must for collectors across the northwest of England.

The jewellery specialists have something for everyone, from classic traditional Georgian pieces to colourful designer ware from the 1920's and 30's. Anderson Jones from Yorkshire promise Art Nouveau diamond and ruby pendants, moonstone rings, and gold and platinum and diamond earrings and bracelets. Among the many unusual items will be an Edwardian Suffragette necklace with amethyst, peridot and tourmaline dated circa 1910.

*An unusual Edwardian amethyst, pearl and enamel gold pendant, circa 1910.
From Anderson Jones.*

Glittering octagonal emerald and diamond ring, from the 1960s, from Plaza.

Brieve Antiques from Wales show a range of traditional and decorative pieces while local dealers Plaza promise a range of traditional 19th and 20th century jewellery together with fine costume pieces and mid-20th century Mexican silver. Sue and Alan Thompson from Somerset have a range of bijouterie and tortoiseshell items amongst other fine jewellery.

Continued.../

‘Jewellery is always very popular,’ explains organiser Sue Ede of Cooper Events. ‘Not only will collectors come to buy particular pieces, but anyone looking for something very special will discover our specialists offer not only unique pieces but excellent value for money compared to the high street’.

The Tatton Park Antiques & Fine Art Fair returns with exhibits starting from less than £30 for a Victorian engraving to more than £10,000 for the finest oil paintings. A wide range of pottery, porcelain, glass, Oriental artifacts, scent bottles, oil and watercolour paintings, engravings, silver, jewellery, tapestries, and all kinds of fabulous objets d’art will be on sale.

Yorkshire dealer Mark Buckley will be showing fine Victorian and Edwardian pieces, including inlaid walnut and mahogany tables, secretaire bookcases, display cabinets and sets of chairs, Cambridgeshire dealer Mark Seabrook Antiques has early English oak and country furniture; Candice Horley from Surrey will be showing a number of Art Deco 1920s and 30s prints, Phoenix Fine Art from Knutsford promises early English watercolours and drawings, John Newton from East Yorkshire specialises in fine porcelain and John Collins & Son from Devon will be showing Georgian and early Victorian pieces in mahogany and walnut.

Tatton Park was named ‘Cheshire’s Large Visitor Attraction of the Year’ in 2004 and 2005 and is one of the North West’s most popular destinations.

Open Friday 11am-5pm, Sat-Sun 12noon-6pm

Admission £5.00pp.

(Vehicle admission to Tatton Park £5.00)

Cooper Fairs

P.O.Box 15, Burnham-on-Sea, Somerset TA8 2BY

Tel: UK (0)1278 784912 / Fax: (0)1278 792687

www.cooperevents.com \ info@cooperevents.com

Press Information & 300dpi Images from

Duncan Phillips, Ambleside, Chard Street, Thorncombe, Somerset TA20 4NF

Tel: UK (0)1460 30897

duncanphillips@btinternet.com \ www.antiquespr.com